Dear Sirs

I have to acknowledge receipt of coins from your sale of 16⁴ / 17⁴.
I think condition of lot 1237 was rather overstated, and B 710 was not in the lot - there were two 708.
However they are good value at price -
Have you a fine B. 710 in stock and at what price -
I enclose Express Order for 14 00 in full of acct - In future kindly send two Invoices - one without amount of Commission - as Customs House people require one

Respectfully

Dear Sirs

Your favour of the 13th with suggestions re my bids to hand, thanks for same.

In lots 32. 33. 34. I based my bids on fixed prices I have from my English dealer & correspondent. 3/- a set.

Lots 29. & 30. I hardly know what you mean by "black" cents, I received a very fair 1809 £ from N.Y. a few months ago at 35¢. from a dealer - 1016 at 5⁰⁰ would be far too rich for my blood.

1060 cost me 5/6⁹ set. I lived many years in London Eng - was born there and have special chances to buy at low prices there.

1273. is one of the commonest Canadian coins - certainly not worth 50¢ which you suggest.

1274 you suggest 5⁰⁰ to 7⁰⁰ ! Anyone can buy these cards from Cranstoun of 4 alt. (the agent) for practically fraction over cost price.

1287. is one of Cranstoun's own cards - he sells them at my bid - gives them to customers -

1290. "Said to be" I doubt very much this being, in any way either a Canadian or a rarity - a few months

1295. is a common English token - I bought one, ago of a city-dealer for 10¢, advertised in England Five 1/6 -

Enclosed find rubbing of same -

1308. are struck in this City - were issued by thousands -

On the whole I must keep to my bids, I've only speculated on this sale.

Thanking you for your kindness

Yours Respectfully

S. S. Keal

P.S. Your 1275. is a genuine Ottawa card - issued about 20 years ago. and vouches for by L. J. Basault. Esq. of Ottawa

Gentlemen.

I received coins yesterday from your sale of the 15th & 16th.

I have been engaged in their collecting for over 30 years, as boy & man and have been buying at auctions for the last 6 or 7, and during that time have never returned a single lot. being of the opinion that a certain latitude must be allowed the cataloguer - and often two men will differ in their description of condition of the same coin. Now gentlemen I do not profess to be a Numismatist - but I have my own opinion of what is meant by the term "very good" when applied to a single coin - and I am returning with this, lot 645 - a 1st E of Augustus, because I do not consider it answers to that description. It is true the price is small - but it is the principle of the thing that causes me to do so, and I regret that there is any occasion for my acting so.

You say on pg. 29 of your catalogue that these coins comprised the "collection" of the Rev Jeremiah Zimmerman, if Mr Zimmerman ever adorned his cabinet with such a specimen, it is more than I will do - and in such a condition I consider it worthless. I am not, it is true a heavy buyer - yet through Mr Shossard I have bought heavily - as for instance when you sold the Kelley Hall collection - but of late I have been afraid to bid what I would have done - if I could have felt sure of condition being as described. I think the same care and fairness should be applied to the description of condition of a 65th coin as to that of one worth 65⁰⁰.

I am perfectly willing to buy coins, and to pay for them, but whenever the actual condition falls so far short of the description as lot 645. I reserve to myself the option of returning same.

I enclose order for 1²⁵, in payment of lots 1238 & 1329, and remain

Gentlemen.

Yours Respectfully

Gentlemen -

Please find Enclosed

order for $5.64 for coins bought at your sale.
Regarding lot 269. received, this coin has a somewhat suspicious appearance, especially the edge, but as it would take some time to verify it. I am accepting it. I however rely on your guarantee - which I note you state, "holds good indefinitely"

Received 2 1/2 M. St. Louis

Thank you

Very truly yours

Order for 1/2 M. St. Louis Regarding the 1/2 M. St. Louis, this was for a specimen of the same species, especially the egg, but as it was not more than a single specimen, I have kept on your specimen which I have not yet sent, and I have not yet sent it.

Respectfully,
